Dance Medley – This is an introductory class for dancers age 3-5. This class is created as an introduction to the basic movements of ballet, jazz, and movement. This is a fun-filled class where dancers are encouraged to explore creative dance while developing their musicality, coordination, rhythm, and creativity.

Acro/Jazz – This energetic and upbeat class teaches the fundamentals of jazz technique and gymnastics in one class. Dancers will combine jazz and acrobatics together to learn different tricks, balancing positions, and tumbling skills along with jumps, kicks, turns, and upbeat jazz choreography.

Hip Hop - This popular form of dance is commonly seen on T.V. and in music videos. Your dancer will learn the coolest and most popular moves in a fun and energetic class. This class is great for any age and skill set. This class helps your dancer to improve their personal style, fitness level, and confidence!

Dance Fusion – This class is a fusion of jazz, lyrical, and contemporary. This class will touch base on the fundamentals of jazz technique learning kicks, jumps, and turns while interpreting lyrics of movement and modern techniques of contemporary.

Please note: Sessional classes will include parent performance in studio during the last week of classes. No exam syllabus work or recital dance will be completed within the session.
